Supporting the Individual: Refugee Background Students

This workshop is delivered by a Foundation House counsellor. It builds on the understanding of the impact of trauma on learning and wellbeing to explore case studies and develop strategies for supporting the individual in the school setting.

Prerequisite:

'School's In for Refugees'

Cost: The professional development is free however participants must complete the registration form and return it via fax/email/post.

Comments from participants:

"Engaging. Relevant. Up to date. Great short course."

"Presenter very good, showed empathy."

"Resources available to support workers and students in programs very useful."

"I will now be more aware of the wide range of factors that impinge on kids' learning and their response to the learning environment."

"Case study brought up so many issues."

"I will make sure I link with teachers more to follow-up students who aren't coping so well."

3hr Session

Foundation House has a long history of working in schools. The work includes individual counselling, group work with students and families and professional development for school administrators, teachers and school support staff.
